ALLEGED VIOLATIONS

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
-------------------------	--------------------------------

1.	The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance.
----	--

On December 11, 2015, Mr. Hassell tested positive for the use of marijuana. He admitted to smoking the controlled substance.

Compliance with Supervision Conditions and Prior Interventions:

Charles Hassell is employed with Green Monster Recycling and Disposal. He lives with his paramour in Nashville, Tennessee. His term of supervised release commenced on August 21, 2015, and he is due to terminate supervision on August 20, 2020.

On August 25, 2015, Mr. Hassell tested positive for the use of marijuana. He admitted to smoking the controlled substance three days prior, just after his release from custody. The Court was notified of the unlawful drug use on September 10, 2015. Mr. Hassell participates in a random drug testing program and completed a substance abuse assessment at Centerstone Mental Health on September 28, 2015. The provider recommended participation in weekly substance abuse group therapy. To date, his progress in group therapy is acceptable and his treatment provider is aware of the recent positive drug test.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

It is respectfully recommended that no additional action be taken by the Court at this time so Mr. Hassell can remain on supervised release, comply with ongoing drug treatment, and not incur any future violations.

The U.S. Attorney's Office has been informed of this matter and respectfully concurs with this recommendation.
